Three different claims require three different kinds of evidence

Algebra example	Concrete tape program	All-size proof
Outputs match, and scratch returns to its starting value	Head movement, copies, routing, and cleanup are charged	Every input size satisfies the cost and error bounds
Finite replay checks a concrete instance	A scalar identity alone does not price movement	A finite run alone does not prove every size